

Dignity and the Future of Work in the Age of the Fourth Industrial Revolution

Proceedings of the Workshop

Dignity and the Future of Work in the Age of the Fourth Industrial Revolution

14-15 October 2019

Studia Selecta 3

Vatican City, 2020

Word of welcome

H.E. Msgr. Marcelo Sánchez Sorondo | Chancellor of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences (PASS)

Introduction

Stefano Zamagni | PASS President

Discussion

How to promote the dignity of work in the face of its hybridization in the digital economy

Pierpaolo Donati

Discussion

The future of work in a changing natural environment

Adam Elsheimi

Discussion

Digitalization: a new driver for changes in employment forms

Ulrich Walwei

Discussion

Man and machine in an economy for all

Jeffrey Sachs

Discussion

The foreseeable impact on sociability and solidarity in labor relations

Jose# Raga

Discussion

Education for the future of work

Marcelo Sua#rez-Orozco

Discussion

The future of work, a formidable challenge

Marco Bentivogli

Discussion

The future of work in a sustainable world

Enrico Giovannini

Discussion

A higher education for integral ecology: radical and not marginal? The emerging experience of the Campus de la Transition

Cecile Renouard

Discussion

The alliance between transhumanism and global neoliberalism. The need for a new technoethics

Francesc Torralba Rosello

Discussion

The future of work in the age of digital revolution

Stefano Zamagni

Discussion

Human Work and Automation. Negotiating the Tension Between Solitude and Relations

Marta Bertolaso

Discussion

The present challenges for an inclusive, dignifying and sustainable future of work

Maria Beatriz Nofal

Discussion

Dignity of labor in a dramatic changing work environment

Rocco Buttiglione

Discussion