Summary of scientific research

Fr Barrera is a member of the St. Joseph Province (New York) of the Order of Preachers and was ordained to the priesthood in 1993. He received his Ph.D. in economics from Yale University with a specialization in development economics. He earned his Licentiate in Sacred Theology (STL) from the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception, Washington DC. Fr. Barrera teaches and writes on the theology of economic life and on the economics of the Catholic Church's care for the marginalized. He has explored how economics and moral theology can mutually reinforce each other in facilitating human flourishing.
